MAP MAVIN: Aiding Data Sharing Between Administrators and Users

Despite wider access to Geographic Information Systems (GIS), there is still a barrier to entry that is difficult and expensive to surmount and many end users and stakeholders lack access to easy-to-use tools. Map Mavin is an innovative online mapping platform that fills this gap in accessibility and affordability.

Refreshments and an extended trial for basic software provided!

Jake Zatz and Katie Nelson, Apollo Mapping
Jake and Katie are UC-Boulder alumni with backgrounds in geography, GIS and remote sensing